

February, 2026

Kenneth John Resch

March 16, 1939-December 14, 2025

I feel profound sadness reflecting on my father's finished life on earth, which God's Word calls a vapor. His primary teaching was by example; I adopted his work ethic, integrity, and service to family—values that bless my life and my children. I am grateful I spent 24 of his last 26 days with him. His constant love remains a firm foundation for my life.

In September, my dad was able to Fame induction, an honor especially inducted him in 1992 for his athletic spoke, linking my high school athletics how spiritual mentors took the place of became my teammates, working J., a former basketball teammate whose approached me and shared that facing his own mortality had prompted him to begin to think more deeply about God in recent years. Believing in striking while the iron is hot, I called him right away after I got back to Missoula. We spoke for a long time; caught up on 45 years, and I shared the good news of the Gospel with him. God has been at work; J. now rests his faith in Christ's completed work rather than his own efforts. We have studied scripture weekly over Facetime for several months, and he has been sharing his newfound faith with his wife who has joined a few of our meetings.

attend my high school athletic Hall of meaningful because the same school prowess in the 50's. At the luncheon, I to finding Christ in college. I explained my coaches, and other Christ-followers together in pursuit of Christ. Afterward, son was also being inducted,

Both J. and I marvel at how God orchestrated our re-connection. Multiple times he's expressed appreciation for the hours I have spent with him. I let him know there is a team of people who he will never meet who love Christ and as an overflow of that love makes it possible for me to have hours to spend with him. Thank you for your prayers and contributions that enable meaningful connections, like this one with J. Kerry and I are thankful to be in this with you.

Prayer Requests

- Request 1 - Please pray for J. and his wife as they grow in intimacy with our Savior.
- Request 2 - Please pray for the upcoming Created for Connection Seminar I will be helping facilitate in March, these seminars are open door for the Gospel.
- Request 3 - Please pray for wisdom for Kerry as she continues to give leadership to our ministry division.

Blessings,

Give at give.cru.org add 039780 or text 71326 and add our names

NAME • 123 STREET. CITY, STATE 00000 • 123.456.7890 • YOUR.EMAIL@CRU.ORG